I had done everything he asked I turned my chair to the right to ask him if that was all he needed. He had his penis in his right hand, he did not have an erection when I 1st saw it I screamed - he was trying to touch me on the face, forearm, shoulder w/ his penis. When I screamed [Redacted] said, "Sammy what are you doing?" I said, "he is trying to molest me" - he put his finger to his mouth to tell me to be quiet I could not move my chair to get away from him because of my desk on the left & him on the right. His pants were not down he had just removed his penis out of his zipper. He left the office as soon as he put his penis back in his pants

On approx. Dec 01, Jan 02 Sammy came to my office & was talking about how long it had been since he & [Redacted] had had sex - I think he said they had taken a trip somewhere - but I know he told me it had been on July 4th weekend I don't remember anything other than that part of the conversation - he was sitting in the chair in front of my desk - he reached up & turned off the light & came around my desk I got up & tried to get out from around my desk before he got to me - he grabbed me around my waist & bent me over the left hand corner of my desk. I had a pair of black pants that have elastic in the waist (small blue & white flowers). He originally had me in a bear hug - his front was to my back then he moved his right hand down the front of my pants - commented on the fact that I shaved my vulva & inserted one of his middle finger into my vagina - I was struggling the entire time telling him NO, STOP, Sammy, NO! Then I started to cry & he let me go. When he had me bent over I remember his breath smelling bad like maybe he had had onions for lunch. He told me [redacted] asked me if I would like to have his dick in me - I said NO - at that time I remember telling him that Mickey had called & he wanted to have sex - I said this because I thought he was going to force himself on me - then he told me he was getting me "ready" for [Kinney] & I should come back & tell him what all we did. I don't think the incident ever came up he only said that as long as I was loyal to him he would be loyal to me. [Redacted] was already gone so I know it had to be 5 o'clock or later. [Redacted] Sammy had told me that [Redacted] needed to add his "section" to the Classification Custody level training - born a copy & go put it in Mrs. Williams office. I did as he instructed & he came in before I could get - he forced me into one of the conference room chairs & proceeded to masturbate. When I tried to get up he would ^{stand} ~~would~~ sit over me so I could not get up - when he achieved

 He thanked me over & over as he was cleaning it up - he said he would be less stressed now & he continued to thank me & tell me how good of a friend I was to him & how much he trusted me. He had the legs go down on the upper thigh - his penis is circumcized & wide. The only light on @ this pt. was ms.

 Williams computer - he turned the light off as he came into the office. I always knew when he was going to do something because he had this grin where he would purse his lips & kind of hold his tongue out like running it over the corner of his top lip.

In 1984, I had to come back to work because I didn't have enough work @ Diagnostic to last me until 10pm. I walked into the copy room & caught Sammy & a girl named [redacted] having sex - she was bent forward & he was behind her. I never said anything about it so for many yrs. he has said he knows that he can trust me I also saw him naked in my friend [redacted] bathroom one night after she & I had been out - I never said anything about this either - I thought both incidents were consensual @ the time
